The accusation by Khawaja Asif added a tinge of bitterness to a hot-tempered bilateral relationship during a crisis over the suicide bombing of an Indian army base on Feb. 14 that killed at least 40 troops. Pakistan denies any involvement and is pressing the United States for support as Indian troops and Kashmiri militants fight a series of increasingly deadly cross-border raids. On Feb. 14, Asif held a press conference at the Pakistani side of the Wagah border crossing, where the two countries officially demarcate their borders. “Our Prime Minister is not a liar,” Asif said, according to a video of the press conference that Reuters obtained. “We have not funded any militant group anywhere on the world,” he said. The minister repeated an allegation from a previous day that India had turned to a Pakistan-based militant group to carry out the bombing in the Poonch area of Jammu and Kashmir, despite India’s denial. Asif said that Pakistani investigators at the scene had found concrete at the spot where a rifle, grenades and
